Introductions

Future Agendas

- Having each person introduce what they do as an occupation to the committee
 - That way, the committee knows what each person brings to the tables as far as skills, experiences, and knowledge.

Homeless Services Center

- Talking about some concerns
 - Volunteers
 - Computers
- Making sure we are comfortable and effective
- Chris Emerson
 - New Operations Manager
 - Starting July 1st
 - Advice from Kevin: Contact Chris as soon as it will be possible once he starts and express any concerns about the Center to him as well
- Many concerns will be addressed soon:
 - Volunteer concerns will be addressed
 - Volunteer trainings
 - Model after New Horizons' Training
 - Separation between homeless and housed
 - Shopping carts
 - Smoking area
 - TV needs to be on the news or something else
 - Should not be for entertainment purposes
 - Accepting too many donations
- There is additional money in the budget to hire a 20 hour position
- Residents of New Horizons' should not be using the Center's laundry facilities.

Point-in-Time Count

- Conducting camp outreaches to get an idea about day-of count locations

Outreach Meetings

- Starting back up

- Facilitated by Pam or Rob from New Horizons
- Scheduling a campground outreach
 - A lot of families move there in the summer
 - Children of families have right to school of origin, which Jocelyne will reaffirm during the outreach.
